3. Upon the dissolution of this organization, assets shall be distributed exclusively for educational purposes to one or more historical societies, libraries, museums, or educational institutions, state, county town, or municipally operated or incorporated, in accordance with s. 181.1401 and 44.03 and under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE III. MISSION

The mission of the organization shall be the collection, preservation, and dissemination of materials and information relating to the history of Pepin County, Wisconsin.

More particularly, its objectives shall be:

- a. To locate and collect any material that may help establish or illustrate the history of Pepin County. These materials shall be collected, preserved, and exhibited in accordance with all laws and regulations that may apply to the collection, possession, and exhibition of such materials.
- b. To disseminate historical information to any interested persons, groups, and institutions and to arouse interest in Pepin County by any of the following means: publishing historical materials either in print or electronically; holding meetings featuring workshops, lectures, or informative programs; conducting historic tours; marking or restoring historic buildings and sites; operating a museum or historic site; and/or any other related activity the organization may so choose to undertake.
- c. To make this material available for the appreciation, enjoyment, study, and research of individuals, scholars, and the general public at large.
- d. To accomplish these goals through the establishment of clearly defined and generally accepted collection, conservation, and interpretation policies and procedures.
- e. To ensure that all programs, functions, and events of the organization, including membership, shall be made available to anyone regardless of race, color, age, national origin, marital status, disability, religious or political affiliation, sex, or sexual preference.
- f. To the extent practicable, make its facilities accessible to the public.
- g. That this organization shall have the power to own property, apply for and receive grants, accept bequests, and establish and maintain an endowment fund for carrying out the above-stated purposes.

ARTICLE IV. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Qualifications.

- a. Any person, partnership, association, corporation, or other organization may become a member of this organization upon payment of the dues stipulated for the classification of membership for which the applicant applies.

- b. Membership shall terminate automatically for non-payment of dues thirty days following the date on which payment is due. Memberships terminated for nonpayment of dues shall be reinstated as of the date payment is made.

Section 2. Classification and Dues.

Membership classifications and dues for each class shall be set by the board of directors.

Section 3. Voting and Privileges.

Each member shall be entitled to a vote of one at all meetings of the membership and shall be entitled to such benefits and privileges as shall be set forth in the regulations and proceedings of the organization.

ARTICLE V. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Composition of the Board.

- a. The total number of members on the board of directors shall be no fewer than 5 (five), and no more than 11 (eleven). A change in the number of directors may be made by resolution at an annual meeting of the members, or at a special meeting of the members called and noticed for that purpose, but no reduction in the number of directors shall shorten the term of any director then in office.
- b. Elections to the board shall be in accordance with the provisions of Article VIII of these bylaws.
- c. Other honorary and/or ex officio appointments to the board of directors may be made as the board shall see fit.

Section 2. Powers of the Board.

The board of directors shall have the power to conduct the affairs of this organization and to delegate such authority as is not otherwise set forth in these bylaws. This includes, but is not limited to, the appointment of standing or special committees; the approval and authorization of the expenditures of the organization; the hiring and termination of employment of staff members; and the creation and implementation of policies for the development, operation, and maintenance of facilities.

Section 3. Duties of the Board.

- a. The board of directors shall make a report of its actions and recommendations at the annual meeting of the members.
- b. The board of directors shall adopt and enforce policies for conflicts of interest for board members, officers, and staff members of the organization.

ARTICLE VI. Elected Officers

Section 1. Classification of Officers.

- a. The principal officers shall be a president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer and such officers shall perform the duties traditional to their offices and in conformity to state statute and Robert's Rules of Order and may assume such other duties as the board may request, among which may be the chairmanship of special or permanent committees. However, no two principal offices may be combined with the exception of secretary and treasurer.
- b. Other officers such as archivist, curator, or historian may be elected or appointed as the board of directors may determine.

Section 2. Removal; Vacancy.

- a. Any elected or appointed officer may be removed, with or without cause, by vote of the directors then in office.
- b. Upon the death, resignation, or removal from office of any elected or appointed officer, the vacancy created may be filled for the unexpired term by the board of directors.
- c. Directors may be removed by action of the membership in accordance with the Wisconsin non-stock corporation law.
- d. Directors may be removed by action of the board of directors for failure to adhere to meeting attendance requirements established at or before commencement of the director's term.
- e. Upon the death or resignation of a director, the vacancy created may be filled by the board of directors until the next annual meeting of members, at which time any remainder of the unexpired term shall be filled by election by the membership.

Section 3. Duties.

- a. Duties of President. The principal duties of the president shall be to preside at all meetings of the board and the executive committee and, except when another officer is authorized to do so, to sign all documents which call for execution on behalf of the organization.
- b. Duties of Vice-President. The vice-president shall undertake any special assignments given him or her by the president or the board. During the absence or disability of the president, the vice-president shall carry out the duties of the president to the extent determined by the board. Following the resignation, removal from office, or death of the president, the vice-president shall assume that office.

- c. Duties of Secretary. The secretary shall keep appropriate records of the meetings of the organization, the board, and all of its committees and undertake any special assignments given him or her by the president or the board. The secretary shall be the custodian of all corporate records of the organization, including such fiscal records, or copies thereof, as originate or are filed with the organization.
- d. Duties of Treasurer. The treasurer shall ensure that all financial assets and income of the organization are fully accounted for and that all of its disbursements are authorized and made consistent with law, board policies, or the specific requirements of a particular fund. The treasurer shall be responsible to the board in matters of financial policy and shall make reports at each board meeting.
- e. Other Duties. The officers shall perform such additional or different duties as may from time to time be prescribed by law or required by the board.
- f. All officers and directors shall familiarize themselves with these bylaws and the articles of incorporation upon their election or appointment, and it shall be the duty of the secretary to distribute such copies to the individuals involved.

Article VII. COMMITTEES

Section 1. Executive Committee.

- a. Executive Committee. Between meetings of the board, the affairs of the organization may be conducted by an executive committee composed in the manner provided in this section. The committee shall possess all powers of the board when the latter is not in session, except that it shall not be authorized to fill a vacancy created by the resignation, incapacity, or death of a board member. The committee shall report all actions taken by it to the next succeeding meeting of the board.
- b. The executive committee shall comprise the president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer. The board may abolish the executive committee by resolution adopted at a meeting called and noticed for that purpose.
- c. The executive committee shall meet on call of the president, or whichever available officer is senior in rank, should the president be unavailable or the office vacant.

Section 2. Nominating Committee.

The Nominating Committee. Every year the president shall appoint a nominating committee of three (3) or more voting members to nominate members for election to the board of directors. The president, or the president's designee, shall provide a written notice either in print or electronic form at least ten (10) days in advance of the annual meeting which is readily accessible to all the organization's members. Such a notice will notify the organization's membership of the possibility of nominating individuals for consideration by the nominating committee and the process for which nominations can be made.

Section 3. Other Committees.

The president may appoint such committees as are deemed necessary for the efficient operation of the organization. Committees of the board shall be composed of three (3) or more board members. Other committees may include directors, officers, or regular members of the organization.

ARTICLE VIII. ELECTIONS

Section 1. Directors.

Terms of board members. Directors shall be nominated in accordance with the provisions of Article VII, Section 2 of these bylaws. All directors shall be elected by the members at the annual meeting of members. A director's term commences at the adjournment of the annual meeting of members at which the director is elected, and lasts for three (3) years, or until the director's successor is elected and qualified. The terms of directors shall be staggered.

Section 2. Officers.

- a. Terms of principal officers--president, vice president, secretary, treasurer--shall be elected by and from the board of directors at a meeting of the board immediately following the annual meeting of members or at such other time as may be convenient to serve for a period of one year or until their successors are elected and qualified.
- b. Other officers as specified in Article VI, section 1, paragraph b, shall be elected or appointed by the board of directors at a meeting of the board to specified or indefinite terms consistent with the nature of their duties and as determined by the board.

ARTICLE IX. MEETINGS

Section 1. Meetings of the Board of Directors.

- a. The board of directors shall meet at least bi-monthly. Special meetings of the board may be called by the president or by any three members of the board, and each director shall be notified in person, by mail, or any other form of electronic communication as to the time and place of such meeting.
- b. A simple majority of the sitting board of directors present and eligible to vote shall constitute a quorum at any regular or special meeting of the board.

Section 2. Meetings of the Membership.

- a. The date of the annual meeting shall be the second Sunday in the month of March each year or at such other time as may be convenient. Notice of the meeting will be at least ten (10) days in advance of the meeting.

- b. Special meetings of the membership may be called by the president, a majority of the board of directors, or upon the written request of ten percent (10%) of the membership. When a special meeting of the members is called each member shall be notified in person, by mail, or by email as to the time and place and purpose of the meeting at least ten (10) days in advance of the meeting.
- c. Only persons in attendance are entitled to vote. There shall be no proxy voting at any annual or special meeting.
- d. Those members present shall constitute a quorum at any annual, regular, or special meeting of the membership.

ARTICLE X. AFFILIATION WITH THE WISCONSIN HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Section 1. Authority for Affiliation.

- a. This organization is an affiliate of the Wisconsin Historical Society by virtue of incorporation under the provisions of s. 44.03 of the Wisconsin Statutes, and shall accordingly receive such benefits and meet such responsibilities as are stipulated therein and as may otherwise be defined through mutual consent and through action by the Board of Curators of the Wisconsin Historical Society.
- b. As an affiliate, this organization is an institutional member of the Wisconsin Historical Society and of the Wisconsin Council for Local History. A representative of the affiliate organization is entitled to a vote of one at all the general meetings of the Society and the Council.
- c. This organization may terminate affiliation through restatement or amendment of its articles of incorporation and amendment to its bylaws. The Wisconsin Historical Society may terminate affiliation by formal resolution of the Board of Curators, a copy of which shall be deposited with the Department of Financial Institutions.
- d. The following shall be causes for termination of affiliation by the Wisconsin Historical Society, but extenuating circumstances shall be taken into account before action to terminate affiliation is taken by the Board of Curators:
 - (1) Failure to hold annual elections for three consecutive years.
 - (2) Failure to submit annual reports to the Wisconsin Historical Society for three consecutive years.
 - (3) Consistent failure to hold meetings for the membership as set forth in Article IX, section 2, paragraph a, of these bylaws.
 - (4) Failure to maintain state non-stock corporation and federal tax-exempt status.

Section 2. Responsibilities.

- a. It shall be the responsibility of this organization to submit an annual report to the Wisconsin Historical Society, which shall include the results of annual elections, the names and addresses of all officers and directors, and such other information as may be requested at given times for the purpose of accumulating data for the benefit of this and other affiliated organizations. Such a report may be filed electronically.
- b. The Wisconsin Historical Society shall be notified in writing or by email of all changes in the articles of incorporation and the bylaws.
- c. In order to protect the interests of donors and contributors, this organization shall maintain state non-stock corporation and federal tax-exempt status.

Section 3. The Role of the Wisconsin Historical Society in Affiliation.

- a. The Wisconsin Historical Society shall send notices and announcements of the meetings and activities of the state society to the president of the organization whose name appears on the current mailing list, and whenever practical such notices and announcements may be sent to the officers, directors, and staff members of this organization to the extent to which the organization provides the Wisconsin Historical Society with current mailing lists.
- b. The organization shall receive without charge such publications and periodicals as prescribed by Wis. Stats. 44.03(5).
- c. To the extent to which staff time and funds permit, the Wisconsin Historical Society shall extend its professional and technical services to this affiliate.

Section 4. The Wisconsin Council for Local History.

- a. This organization shall be a member of the West Central region of the Wisconsin Council for Local History, the association of the affiliates of the Wisconsin Historical Society established by the Board of Curators in 1961 through the authority of s. 44.03(5) of the Wisconsin Statutes.

ARTICLE XI. AMENDMENTS

1. The bylaws may be amended by a majority vote of the members at any annual meeting, or at any special meeting called for that purpose, with any new, amended, or additional bylaws to be adopted in the same manner.
2. The board of directors of the corporation shall have the authority to amend, adopt or repeal any or all bylaws of the corporation, but any such action affecting any bylaw provision enacted by the directors must be ratified by the members at the next annual meeting.
